Memorandum of Agreement
Society of American Military Engineers and The National Council for Public-Private Partnerships

The terms and conditions outlined in this Memorandum of Agreement will guide the Society of American Military Engineers (SAME) and the National Council for Public-Private Partnerships (NCPPP). Its execution recognizes the intent of both organizations to form a strategic alliance to facilitate collaboration, education and information sharing to promote the responsible use of partnerships for SAME members involved in the architecture, engineering, and construction services to the Department of Defense and other federal, state, and local public agencies. No money will be exchanged with this partnership.

Conferences: SAME and NCPPP agree to market each other’s annual conferences through various media sources on request. Both parties agree to consider opportunities for participation in respective conferences when appropriate.

Education & Training: SAME and NCPPP agree to link their respective continuing education courses to their education web pages. SAME agrees to host Federal NCPPP educational courses for its members, subject to positive feedback from attendees through course evaluations. Any instructors provided by NCPPP should have expertise in public-private partnerships with the Federal government and DOD in particular. SAME and NCPPP agree to collaborate on course content.

Institutes/Post Collaboration. SAME Posts are encouraged to collaborate with NCPPP and it’s institutes directly in order to focus Regional or Post meetings on a particular sector of public – private partnerships.

Membership. SAME and NCPPP agree to allow members of their associations to register at the member rate, regardless of membership status, for each other’s conferences and continuing education sponsored or hosted at the national level. SAME and NCPPP will exchange up to three full individual memberships in order to allow the other organization to receive marketing e-mails and to stay current with information and policies.

Term of Memorandum of Agreement. SAME and NCPPP both agree that this memorandum is effective as of the date of signing by the Executive Director of each association and shall continue until either or both parties, with 90 days written notice, declare it null and void. This agreement may be supplemented by additional operating agreements to be signed by the parties to this MOA.
