Description

For COL Lucas Rice, his leadership skills were learned in the crucible of the battlefield. As the author of Battlefield to Boardroom and consultant, COL Rice helps veterans understand how to transition their military leadership to the private sector, and navigate the challenges of this new environment. The skills that are learned and embedded in the military are also applicable to an academic environment, but you need to understand how and where to use them. Join us for a micro-bootcamp on how you can enhance your student leadership footprint.

Speaker: Colonel Lucas Rice, EVP & Chief Operating Officer at LDX Solutions, and Colonel, GA National Guard

COL Rice began his service in 1988 enlisting through Ft. Monmouth, NJ. At West Point, Lucas served as First Sergeant, Company Commander, and 2-time team MVP for the Men's Soccer team. Graduating in 1993 and branching Aviation, COL Rice served at Ft. Campbell (Platoon Leader, Bn S1, BDE S1), South Korea (BDE S4 and Troop Commander), and back to Ft. Rucker (S3 and AH-64 Instructor Pilot). Following a break in service, COL Rice joined the GA ARNG where he still currently serves today.

Lucas began his civilian career at GE Energy, and quickly transitioned into Leadership and Execution Consulting. After several years, Lucas moved into Design/Build Construction, including work in ethanol, higher education, and pharmaceuticals. Lucas moved up to the level of regional management and then moved into his most recent role as the COO/EVP for an international engineering and manufacturing company.

Lucas is married to Stephanie Rice, also a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point. Stephanie also flew helicopters on active duty for nine years, then transitioned to corporate America eventually becoming self-employed and a business owner. She has been in business as Owner and President for 13 years. Together they have 4 children (Aiden-17, Gavin-16, Jackson-16, and Addison - 13) and have lived in Atlanta, GA for 18 years.

About the Virtual Student Chapter

The Virtual Student Chapter is a boundaryless chapter that delivers professional development programs to students at the high school and college level to foster engineering leadership for our nation.
