To Who it My Concern:

The Society of American Military Engineers (SAME) is accepting applications from qualified students planning to pursue a college education in the field of engineering, architecture, mathematics, computer science, or related field. Interested applicants must meet the eligibility requirements noted on the application form.

The Fort Campbell Post is pleased to offer a $1000 scholarship to a high school senior or first year college student that is a dependent of an active duty, reserve duty, military retired or society member. If the recipients remain in good academic standings, they may apply for a $1000 renewal each successive year up to four years for a maximum $4,000 scholarship award.

The application may be downloaded at http://same.org/Campbell and returned no later than April 15, 2020. The winner(s) will be notified in June 2020 and encouraged to attend an award ceremony on Fort Campbell.

If you have questions, please contact Mr. Ted Reece, Scholarship Chairman at (931) 980-3730 or email at reeceted@yahoo.com.

Sincerely,

Jesse Nelson
President
Campbell Post S.A.M.E.
10 February 2020

To Who it My Concern:

The Society of American Military Engineers (SAME) is accepting applications from qualified students planning to pursue a college education in the field of engineering, architecture, mathematics, computer science, or related field. Interested applicants must meet the eligibility requirements noted on the application form.

The Fort Campbell Post is pleased to offer a $1,000 scholarship to a high school senior or college freshman that is a dependent of an active duty, reserve duty, military retired or society member. If the recipients remain in good academic standings, they may apply for a $1000 renewal each successive year up to four years for a maximum $4,000 scholarship award.

The application may be downloaded at http://same.org/Campbell and returned as stated on the instructions no later than April 15, 2020. The winner(s) will be notified in June 2020 and encouraged to attend an award ceremony on Fort Campbell.

We would appreciate your distribution of this scholarship opportunity to students and trust that you will advise and assist qualified candidates in applying for this scholarship. If you have questions, please contact Mr. Ted Reece, Scholarship Chairman at (931) 980-3730 or email at reeceted@yahoo.com.

Sincerely,

Jesse Nelson
President
Campbell Post S.A.M.E.