WHAT MAKES THE
TEXAS BULLET TRAIN DIFFERENT
A New Way to Connect

Reimagining Travel between North Texas and Houston

| SAFE | Zero Accidents / Zero Fatalities
More than 53-years in operations in Japan |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| FAST | Travels at Nearly 200-Miles Per Hour
Houston to North Texas in 90-minutes |
| RELIABLE | Leaves On Time, Every Time
Less than a one-minute delay annually |
Safest Mode of Transportation in the World
Investor-Owner Approach
Data-Driven Decisions

$10s of millions spent on studies

14-million trips per year already being made

80% of Texans surveyed for this study said they would consider riding the bullet train
Tracking Progress
The Bullet Train is Moving Forward

- FEB 2011: Initial Technical Feasibility Study Validates Concept
- FEB 2012: First Investment Grade Ridership Study Confirms Market Demand
- JUN 2014: Environmental Review Process Begins
- JUL 2015: Texas-based investors fund $75 million capital raise
- AUG 2017: Fluor and Lane Announced as Design/Build Partner
- DEC 2017: DEIS is Released By FRA
BUILDING THE
TRAIN EVERY DAY
Texas Companies at Work
Construction on a Texas-Sized Scale

>$12 Billion Investment in Civil Infrastructure

CONCRETE
10 million cubic yards of concrete, nearly 3X used in the Hoover Dam

RAIL
Nearly 1,100 miles of rail

STATIONS & FACILITIES
3 passenger stations
2 train maintenance facilities
multiple maintenance of way and power substations
Jobs, Jobs, Jobs

10,000 Direct Jobs per year During Construction

Electrician
$42,000/year

Welder
$50,000/year

Construction Manager
$80,000/year

Source for salaries: Texas Workforce Commission
Creating a New Industry in Texas
The Bullet Train is Moving Forward

More than 1,500 Direct Jobs Once Operational
Building Relationships While Building the Train
The Bullet Train is Moving Forward

“I’m certainly in favor of it, if it could save one life.”
Terry, Grimes County Resident

“It was strictly a win-win situation for us, and I think for Texas.”
Debra & Johnny, Madison County landowners

“It’s a great opportunity for Texans to travel our state.”
Alicia, Grimes County property owner
Benefits Spread Across the State

Significant Economic Boost for Texas

$36B
In Economic Impact

$2.5B
In Tax Revenue

25%
Of Permanent Jobs
In Rural Communities

10
Counties

Equivalent to 180 Super Bowls

First Responders
Training & Equipment

Jobs, Revenue and Opportunity for Texas
Smarter, Faster Way Across Texas
Be an Advocate for Your Bullet Train
Join Us to Stay Informed

Text TRAIN to 52886

- Share Your Feedback
- Give a Testimonial
- Sign Up to Work on the Train

www.TexasCentral.com