RE: Society of American Military Engineers
Engineering and Construction Camps

To Whom It May Concern:

The Society of American Military Engineers offers a very unique series of engineering camps designed for High School students who excel in math, science and technical courses and are interested in pursuing engineering in college or attendance at a service academy. These camps are high energy, hands–on events for students from across the country and around the world. The camps are led by a professional staff of engineers from both private industry and the military services. There are the following camp opportunities:

The Delmarva Post of SAME has agreed to sponsor one student to each of the above camps. The total cost of each camp is $580, of which the Delmarva Post will pay $290 and the student will pay $290. The student contribution is required to ensure commitment. The Delmarva Post will also pay for air transportation from the Philadelphia or Baltimore Airports to the camp’s designated airport. The student will be responsible for ground transportation to and from the local airport. The transportation to and from the camp’s airport will be provided by the camp staff. Specifics of the flights will be determined after we have selected a participant(s).

Additional information about the camps can be found at: http://samecamps.org/. Please note that we are not sponsoring students to the US Army Camp.

Enclosed is a form that describes the eligibility requirements and also has the application form to submit to the DelMarVa Post. Under Section VI Supplemental Information, at this time the DelMarVa Post is only requiring submission of the two sentence description of you (i.e the student applicant) and the one paragraph about why you would like to attend the camp. The remaining information in Section VI will only be requested from the chosen candidate. The application form should be mailed to the following address to arrive no later than March 21, 2015:
