Society of American Military
Engineers (SAME) Brief
May 2020

AGENDA

- The Integrated Award Environment
- SAM.gov Modernization
- Opportunities Features and Functionality on beta.SAM.gov
- Wrap up & Questions

The Integrated Award Environment

The Integrated Award Environment

- Reducing barriers for doing business with the Government
- Centralized authoritative source for government award data
- Increasing transparency into federal spending
- Increasing accountability in the award process
- Reducing reporting burden
- Increasing data quality and integrity

SAME Brief

beta.SAM.gov | For People Who Make, Receive, and Manage Federal Awards

The IAE Systems

- 1.6 million average users per month

Modernization

Modernization Benefits

- IAE is integrating 10 systems into one application
- IAE, until recently was managing 10 separate systems for those who make, manage, or receive federal awards

- Seamlessly access large stores of related data
 - More transparent, informed, and effective award decisions
 - End-to-end analysis of procurements
 - Increased business knowledge for federal and nonfederal users
- Centralized administration for improved oversight and accountability
 - Integrated business processes
 - Greater efficiency
 - Reduced learning curve

beta.SAM.gov

- beta.SAM.gov was launched in late 2017 as a consolidated location for all IAE systems.
- Other systems remain authoritative until their functionality, data, and roles are integrated into beta.SAM.gov and they are decommissioned.
- The term beta differentiates the consolidated site from SAM.gov.
- Once SAM is integrated into the consolidated system, it will be renamed SAM.gov, and beta will be retired.

Upcoming Improvements to Contract Opportunities

Agile Improvements Based on Feedback

We have heard you!

- A feedback mechanism on the site allows us to continually collect ideas about how to refine and improve the experience and rise up to meet user needs
- Since the November 2019 launch, the following improvements have been made:
 - Email Notifications for Saved Searches
 - Whenever saved search data is updated, the owner of the saved search receives an email. Emails sent are daily digests that alert user to a change.
 - Following List Now Shows Record ID (instead of the internal system identifier)
 - Users can now look at their Following page and more easily determine which opportunities they are following. Additional usability improvements are planned for future releases.

AGILE Development = Continual Improvement!

Planned Opportunities Improvements

Open Items	Details
Allow users to schedule searches	Allow users to set date and time for searches to run.
Public search to include filtering below sub-tier for opportunities	Filtering on search for Opportunities only by department down to office level (will not integrate filtering for other domains, and will not allow visibility of lower organization information)
Geographic capabilities	Allow users to select miles from designated locations.

Contract Data Reports

Contract Data (FPDS) Reporting

- New/Improved Capabilities

- Reports can now span 12 years instead of 5
- Reports can now return 150K rows instead of 30K
- Report structure can now be easily shared (attributes, metrics, etc)
- Additional reportable Data Fields
- Wizard like capability for report creation

- Transition Testing on beta.SAM.gov:

- Reports transition testing began on March 16, 2020. Transition period ongoing.
- Ad hoc reports converted and available for testing. Training options include: videos, reference guides, and FAQs.

For More Information:

- Keep up to date about the latest news and information regarding the transition of IAE systems by subscribing to our IAE Interact Community
- Banners with updated information for the Reports Transition are on beta.SAM.gov and FPDS.gov.

The screenshot displays the SAM.gov beta website interface for Contract Data reporting. At the top, it identifies itself as an official U.S. government website and provides a link to 'Here's how you know'. The main header features the SAM.gov logo and navigation icons. The page is titled 'Learning Center / Contract Data' and includes a 'Library' section with a 'Keyword Search' box and a link to 'Explore our Library'. A sidebar on the left lists 'Data Sets' such as Assistance Listings, Contract Opportunities, Contract Data (highlighted), Entity Information, Federal Hierarchy, and Wage Determinations. The main content area is titled 'Contract Data' and explains that it is the official source for contract data reports, detailing post-solicitation and award data for contracts valued at $3,500 or more. It also features a 'Static Reports' section, which provides aggregate data on a fiscal year basis and lists various report types like National Interest Action, Small Business Goaling, Top 100 Contractors, and Federal Procurement Reports. A 'Resources' section includes a sign-in prompt for accessing standard and ad hoc reports, along with links to help resources like reference guides and videos. A 'Provide Feedback' button is located at the bottom left of the main content area.

Data Services Extracts

Users can now download all Contract Opportunity data in an Excel spreadsheet from beta.SAM.gov.

Each domain has a folder with specific subfolders and files for that data set. Contract Opportunities has two main sub-folders:

- datagov: This is a CSV file with a full daily extract of all the public contract opportunities data. This replaces the old FTP file.
- Buy American Act: This export is to provide transparency into reported federal awards that cited an exception to the Buy American Act.

Getting Started

Get Opportunities API can be accessed from Beta or Alpha via the following environments:

FPDS Report Transition

Coming SOON: Contract Data (FPDS) Reporting

- FPDS Reports are being retired
 - FPDS Contract Data reports became available in the beta.SAM.gov Data Bank on March 16, 2020. On May 16, 2020, contract data report functionality will be decommissioned from FPDS.gov and will only be available on beta.SAM.gov. Contract Data reports will no longer be available on FPDS once the transition ends on May 16. Only the contract data reports functionality is transitioning; the rest of the functionality (search, agency data entry, data exports, etc.) will remain on FPDS.
- Static, Standard and Admin Reports are mostly the same
 - Standard Reports now require login, but no role
- Ad Hoc Reports now have a “wizard” capability as well as a “build your own”
- Existing Ad Hoc reports in FPDS.gov - conversion for beta.SAM.gov
 - Ad Hoc reports created by 1/31/2020 AND executed between 1/1/2019 and 1/31/2020 went through a conversion process resulting in 84% conversion

Data Bank

Sam.gov reports can be used to support analysis of federal spending including geographical analysis, market analysis, and analysis on the impact of the congressional and presidential initiatives in socio-economic areas such as small business spending. The data is also a reliable basis for measuring and assessing the impact of Federal acquisition policy and management improvement.

Contract Opportunities Reports

Reports on contract opportunities are available to the public. These reports provide detailed information in support of business decisions. As Agency Administrators with Contract Opportunity rights, you can access management reports to monitor published notices, attachments, and associated details.

Ad Hoc Reports

The basics of ad hoc reports are unchanged on beta.SAM.gov. Reports are still built from user-selected attributes, metrics, and filters. Instead of choosing from Award-IDV Information and Other Transaction Information while building the report, however, users now select which type of information to report on at the outset:

Ad Hoc Reports

As with the previous system, the reports “home” displays all saved ad hoc reports. Unlike FPDS.gov, ad hoc reports in beta.SAM.gov are not grouped into folders. This functionality may be added in the future.

Ad Hoc Reports

To create a new report, users click the red Create button. They can then either create a new blank report or use a report builder—a “wizard” that walks users through the steps of building an ad hoc report.

Ad Hoc Reports

Creating a blank report is very similar to creating an ad hoc report in FPDS.gov. One difference is that users must specify a date range before adding attributes and metrics. The range of dates can now span 12 years.

To proceed after entering dates, click the Edit in Design Mode button in the lower left corner:

Ad Hoc Reports

The same report-building options are available as in FPDS.gov, but are arranged differently. Metrics are found under the Public Objects folder on the left and attributes are found under Schema Objects. Attributes and metrics can be dragged from the list on the left into the appropriate areas for columns, rows, and metrics.

Ad Hoc Reports

Filters are found above the report-building area in beta.SAM.gov. Attributes and metrics can be dragged from the area on the left into the Report Filter area. From there, users can select an operator and a value for the filter, either qualifying by a known value or selecting from a list of values.

Ad Hoc Reports

After selecting the attributes, metrics, and filters, the report can be executed. In FPDS.gov, there was a button labeled Execute. In beta.SAM.gov, the Run Report button is the leftmost button (with the lightning bolt) in the menu of buttons above the working area on the left.

Learning Center

The beta.SAM.gov Learning Center is your number one source for help and information. Link to customer support and follow what's happening in beta.SAM.gov via Interact.

The Learning Center provides searchable material such as:

- Access to video tutorials
- Frequently asked questions (FAQs)
- Quick start guides
- Data glossary

What do I need to register with login.gov? FAQ

You need to create a login.gov account if you don't already have one. Your old beta.SAM.gov username and password won't work anymore.

You'll need to:

- Create a login.gov account - you only need to do this once
- Enter an email address - use the same email address you use for beta.SAM.gov or else you will not get your roles!
- Have a working phone number (mobile or landline)
- Login.gov will send you a security code

Contract Opportunities

This site is the official source

Organizations within the federal government publish notices on proposed contract actions valued at more than $25,000. These notices, or contract opportunities, cover announcements through official solicitations in the pre-award process. Anyone interested in doing business with the government can use this system to research active opportunities.

Each contract opportunity found here provides the following information:

- The original notice and any related notices to show the full pre-award acquisition
- A notice history that includes updates and tracking changes
- Any related attachments or external links
- Instructions on how to submit a response, offer, or proposal
- The date on which responses are due

You can search for opportunities by keyword, solicitation ID, or by the name of a federal organization. You can then use a wide variety of filters to narrow results. Related notices are linked together to get a fuller acquisition view.

While you don't need a user account to view contract opportunities, you will need one to access additional capabilities—such as:

- Saving and rerunning searches
- Following opportunities to keep up to date on notices
- Adding yourself to an opportunity's Interested Vendors List
- Downloading search results or display items into .pdf or .csv files
- Running customized reports on opportunities data
- Requesting access to controlled but unclassified attachments
