NATIONAL MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

SAME gives you and your organization unique opportunities to achieve professional and business goals within the public sector and architecture/engineering/construction industry. As a member, you have access to countless opportunities to collaborate and network with industry leaders in a joint service environment (both locally and nationally). Grow professionally and personally by participating in technical education and training, conferences and community service events. Communities of Interests (COIs) give members exclusive access to engage with peers and content in a specific area of practice or designation. Membership in SAME gives you the opportunity to be in the room where it happens, and to collaborate to make things happen, in support of our nation's security. Join our dynamic community that brings together over 29,000 individuals from public, private, academic and non-profit entities that build America.
