

BYLAWS of the SOCIETY OF AMERICAN MILITARY ENGINEERS FRONTIER POST

Article I

Seal, Insignia and Logo

1. The seal, insignia and logo of the Post shall be the same as established by The Society of American Military Engineers (SAME) National Board of Direction and published on SAME web site.
2. Customized logos may be used only for special events in addition to the seal, insignia and logo established by SAME.

Article II

Governance

1. The name of the Post shall be the Frontier Post, Society of American Military Engineers, hereafter referred to as the "Post."
2. The Post shall be governed by these Bylaws, consistent with the Constitution and Bylaws of SAME. In the event that these Bylaws are in conflict with SAME's Constitution or Bylaws, those of SAME shall govern.
3. The Post fully supports the policy of equal opportunity and will not discriminate or knowingly participate in any activity that discriminates on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Likewise, the Post will take no official action that is or appears to be detrimental or discriminatory to any class or group of persons.
4. It is the policy of this Post to adhere to the highest standards of ethical conduct in all its activities. The Post fully supports and expects strict compliance by every member with all applicable laws and regulations in the conduct of business and professions. The Post recognizes that members who represent the government in matters affecting the economic interests of others hold special positions of public trust requiring them to observe the highest ethical standards. Accordingly, the Post supports the principle that strict impartiality must prevail in all business relationships involving the government.

Article III Membership

1. SAME Membership will be attained through application for National SAME membership and payment of National dues to SAME Headquarters. Transfer to this Post from another Post is accomplished through notification to SAME Headquarters. SAME Headquarters maintains the official Post roster of members.
2. Post Membership is achieved by paying Post dues to SAME National. Students do not pay Post dues but select a Post affiliation when joining SAME and paying National dues. Additional Posts memberships may be obtained by selecting the post of interest and paying the dues for that Post.
3. Any member of the Post will be automatically dropped from the Post roster maintained by SAME Headquarters for failure to pay National or Post dues to SAME Headquarters as prescribed by SAME By-laws.
4. Companies and Public Agencies may become Sustaining Members at the Post by paying the appropriate dues to SAME Headquarters. Sustaining Member and Public Agency representatives become members of the Post by being nominated by their company or public agency and submitting a completed application to SAME Headquarters. The Company or Public Agency determines who shall be the representatives to the Post. Sustaining Member and Public Agency representatives have full voting rights in the Post.

Article IV Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors when developed shall be comprised of the Post Officers, two (2) Elected Directors (Young Members and Fellows/Senior Members), the Immediate Past Post President, and as many special Appointed Directors as necessary to provide an opportunity for all segments of the Post and local military installations to be represented and to link the Post to National Committees, as appropriate. The term of office for an Elected Director shall be a one (1)-year term with the Appointed Directors rotating as required to provide continuity in the governance of the Post. The Past President shall have a one-year term; the position will help continuity of Post leadership in a mentoring capacity. The term of office for Appointed Directors shall be one year. The incoming President recommends individuals to be Appointed Directors, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors. Directors may be re-elected or re-appointed for additional terms.
2. The Post shall hold elections annually such that the new and continuing Officers and Directors are installed May/June of each year.
3. Directors shall be charged to support the mission and goals of SAME by serving as a Post Committee Chair or champion of a special interest or element of SAME's Strategic Plan. One Director position shall be established for a Young Member and one Director for a Fellow, or senior member if the Post has no Fellows. Elected Directors will serve with the Officers of the Post under the supervision of the President or ranking officer, and shall have a vote on matters of Post business in the same manner as the officers.

4. The Board of Directors shall have power to fill vacancies of the Officers and Elected Director positions provided that Officers and Elected Directors so selected shall serve until the next annual election only, at which time the vacancy shall be filled in the manner herein prescribed for other vacancies occurring in the regular course.
5. The Board of Directors shall meet regularly for the transaction of business and members thereof shall constitute a quorum. (See Voting & Quorum, Article XI) The President on his/her own initiative may call special meetings of the Board of Directors. Conduct of business utilizing teleconferencing is permitted.
6. The Board of Directors approves the establishment, disestablishment or continuance of Committees that may be recommended by the President. (See Committees, Article VI)

Article V Officers

1. The Officers of the Post shall consist of President, 1st and 2nd Vice Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, and Assistant Secretary-Treasurer. These positions shall be elected by the Post membership for a one-year term. Officers may succeed themselves in office if duly elected by the membership for additional terms. Officers are voting members of the Board of Directors.
2. The President shall be responsible for general supervision of the affairs of the Post and shall preside at the meetings of the Post. The President may recommend the establishment, disestablishment, restructuring or continuance of Post Committees to the Board of Directors for approval. The President shall appoint Committee Chairs and has general supervision over all Post Committees. In the absence of the President, his/her responsibilities devolve to the 1st Vice President. In the case where the President cannot complete his/her term, the remaining Officers and the Board of Directors shall elect a new president, provided that they are able to give a unanimous vote. In the event that they are not able to give such unanimous vote, the election of the President will be held by the Post in accordance with Article IX.
3. The President shall preside at all meetings and shall sign all written contracts and obligations of the Post, with the concurrence of the Treasurer on financial obligations. The President shall obtain a legal review of all major contracts for which the Post could incur significant liability. The President, or in his/her absence, the First Vice President and the Secretary or the Treasurer, shall sign all written contracts and obligations of the Post.
4. The Post President shall report to the Post membership at the annual Post meeting the status of affairs of the Post at a minimum addressing: a) the financial and membership status of the Post; b) a review of the Post's activities for the current year; and c) and the Post's progress in achieving the goals and objectives of the SAME Strategic Plan. (See Meetings and Activities, Article VIII)
5. The Secretary shall have charge of the correspondence and records of the Post. The Secretary shall: a) give timely notices of all meetings to all members; b) record the proceedings of all Board and membership meetings; and c) submit the annual report to the Board of Directors during the last calendar quarter. In his/her absence, his/her duties will devolve upon the Assistant Secretary -Treasurer or other individual assigned by the President.

6. The Treasurer shall be comptroller of the accounts of the Post under the direction of the President. The Treasurer shall: a) make collections and disbursements under the supervision of the President as directed by the Post; b) render an annual report each January and other reports as may be called for by the President and SAME; and c) file Federal, state, and local income tax returns with a copy to be sent to SAME Headquarters to ensure the retention of SAME's tax exempt status. The accounts shall be audited annually by a Post member committee appointed by the President or an outside auditor prior to the submission of the annual financial report to the SAME Headquarters. The committee shall report to the President the results of the audit in February. (See also Finances, Article VII) In his/her absence, his/her duties will devolve upon the Assistant Secretary –Treasurer or other individual assigned by the President.
7. The Assistant Secretary-Treasurer shall assist the Secretary and the Treasurer in their duties, and in the absence of either, the duties will devolve upon him/her. Checking accounts of the Post will be kept in the name of the Post, available upon the signature of either the Treasurer or Assistant Secretary-Treasurer and others, as appointed by the President, for the convenience and efficiency of operating the Post.

Article VI
Committees, Task Forces and Special Advisors

1. The Post may establish Post Operations and Post Mission Committees. The chairperson of these standing committees will serve with the Officers of the Post and the Elected Directors under the supervision of the Post President or ranking Post officer. The chairperson of these committees will be an Appointed Director and shall have a vote on matters of Post business in the same manner as the Officers and Elected Directors. Each committee chairperson shall select committee members with the approval of the Officers and Elected Directors, preferably from a geographic cross section of Post (See Society By-Laws, Article VIII)
2. Operations committees are those that support the President and Board of Directors in administration of the Post. Standing operations committees include: a) Scholarship, b) Audit, and c) Nominating.

Standing Mission Committees include: a) Readiness; b) Programs; c) Membership (General and Sustaining Members); d) Engineering and Construction Summer Camp; e) Student Post; f) Communications; and e) Programs.
4. Ad hoc or temporary Committees may be established to achieve goals and implement objectives set forth in SAME's Strategic Plan at the recommendation of the President and with the approval of the Board of Directors. These committees should have specific missions.
5. In addition to the above Post Committees, the President may establish other special task forces and assign advisors deemed necessary to accomplish the Post's mission, with a specified term of office.

Article VII
Finances

1. The fiscal year of the Post shall begin on the first day of January.
2. Post dues for the various categories of membership established by the SAME Bylaws shall be an amount established by the Post Board of Directors. There shall be no Post dues for Sustaining Members or Student Members. Any proposed change in Post dues must be approved by the Post Board of Directors and sent to SAME Headquarters anytime during the year but no later than 30 November, so that it will become effective on January 1 of the following year.
3. A budget shall be submitted by the Post Treasurer annually prior to the beginning of the calendar year for review and approval by the Post Board of Directors.
4. The Post shall establish a separate Education and Mentoring Fund, if the Post plans to raise funds and grant scholarships. Such Scholarship Fund shall be administered in accordance with applicable state and local laws and regulations.
5. Upon dissolution of this Post, all assets will be forwarded to SAME Headquarters for inclusion into SAME's general fund.

Article VIII Meetings and Activities

1. Regular meetings and technical, professional and social activities of the Post shall be developed and implemented to meet the goals and objectives set forth in SAME's Strategic Plan. Such activities shall be planned by the Program Committee to achieve participation of all segments of the Post membership.
2. The Post shall conduct an annual meeting that will include awards to recognize outstanding individuals, committees and sustaining members. The Post's annual meeting may be combined with a regular meeting held in the month coinciding with Post annual elections or installation of the new Board of Directors. (See Nominations & Elections, Article IX)
3. The President or Board of Directors may call for a special meeting at any time to conduct business of the Post. At least one week's notice of time and place and purpose of the meeting shall be given to all members and only the business stated in the call shall be transacted at the special meeting.

Article IX Nominations and Elections

1. The Nominations Committee (Current President and one of the Vice Presidents) develops a slate of officers and elected directors for each position as specified in Articles IV and V, obtaining input for such slate from the Board of Directors and members of the Post.
2. The minimum qualification for a person to be nominated or to nominate an individual for office is to be a member in good standing of SAME and the Post.

3. A slate of Officers and Elected Directors is presented to the Post membership at its May general membership meeting and voted upon by those members in attendance, provided that the slate was announced to the Post membership prior to the meeting and an opportunity provided for members to submit ballots prior to the meeting for the purpose of the election, as determined by the Board of Directors. A quorum is not needed for these general elections. The results of the election shall be transmitted to the Regional Vice President and the SAME Headquarters within 30 days.
4. Following the election of Officers and Elected Directors, the new President may recommend special Appointed Directors at any time during the year for approval of the Board of Directors.
5. The installation of the new Board of Directors shall occur at the June general membership meeting of the Post and this date will serve as the date of the beginning of the elected Officers' and Directors' terms of office.
