Who We Are

The Society of American Military Engineers (SAME) offers a global membership into the architecture, engineering, and construction (A/E/C) industry, with over 27,000 members. The local Post (Chapter) is the Washington DC Post, established in 1921.

Mission: SAME leads collaborative efforts to identify and resolve national security infrastructure-related challenges.

Vision: SAME is recognized as a multi-disciplined integrator of military, public, private, and academic national infrastructure-related capabilities to produce viable solutions for America's national security.

The SAME DC Post is now accepting applications for the 2027 annual scholarship program from qualified students pursuing engineering, architecture, construction management, or related built environment fields. In 2026, the Post gave over $90,000 in scholarships and tuition programs. This year, eligible students can receive up to $10,000 each to support their education.

- Scholarships range from $1,000 to $10,000
- Incoming freshmen, undergraduates, graduate students, and trade school students are eligible
- Applicants must be U.S. citizens
- Students eligible for free SAME membership must be SAME DC Post members
